

May 13, 2011 - 2011 Summer Beach Guide

What's new in Delaware

Here are the newest in hip and happening venues for the summer

By Stephanie Citron, Special to The Baltimore Sun

Lewes

Lounge lizards: Agave Mexican Grill and Restaurant's larger new location also has a swanky second floor lounge. (135 Second St., Lewes, 302-645-1232)

Cake Bar: The deliciously new Cake Bar bakery has a sit-down bistro serving creative fare for lunch and dinner. (115 Second St., Lewes, 302-645-2253)

Salt Air Farm & Table: The sister to Salt Air Kitchen grows produce and raises livestock for both restaurants, and sells its harvest at its on-premises farm-store. 28841 Lewes Georgetown Highway, Lewes, 302-227-2444.

Rehoboth Beach

Shopping app: Tanger Outlets has a free app providing customized content and deals. Go to tangeroutlet.com/getconnected

Cake Break: The bakery offers unique gourmet cupcakes and a place where children can decorate their own. (7 S. First St., Rehoboth, 302-260-9264, cakebreakrehoboth.com)

Jolly tours: The Jolly Trolley now offers narrated tours and private Jolly Cars in Rehoboth Beach. (302-227-1197, jollytrolley.com)

Dewey Beach

Port: The newest eatery for fresh catch is Port, whose dishes feature local produce infused with Cajun and Thai influences. (1205 Highway One, Dewey Beach, 302-227-0669, portdewey.com)

Bethany Beach

Hotel renovation: The Holiday Inn Express has completely renovated including its guest rooms, breakfast bar and lobby. (39642 Jefferson Bridge Road, Bethany Beach, 302-541-9200, holiday-bethany.com)

Matt's Fish Camp: Famed SoDel Concepts chef Matt Haley is serving up classic seafood dishes at his newest restaurant. (28635 Coastal Highway, Bethany Beach, 302-539-2267, mattsfishcamp.com).

—Stephanie Citron

Copyright © 2011, The Baltimore Sun